Yellow warning
Rain

Between 08:00 Mon 30 Sep 2024 and
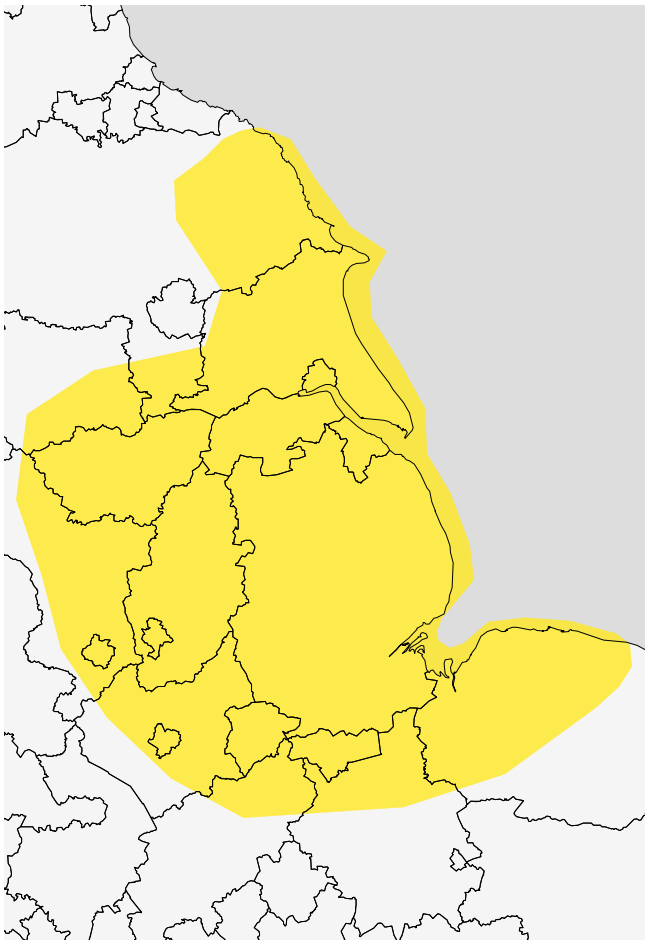
03:00 Tue 1 Oct 2024



There is a small chance that heavy rain may cause some flooding and disruption on Monday.

What to expect

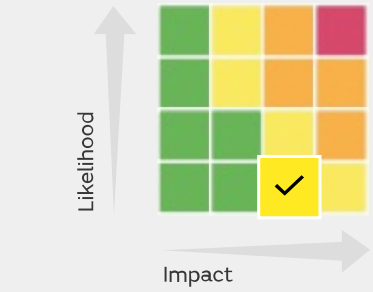
- There is a small chance that homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- Where flooding occurs, there is a slight chance of delays or cancellations to train and bus services
- Spray and flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- There is a small chance that some communities will become cut off by flooded roads
- There is a slight chance of power cuts and loss of other services to some homes and businesses

Further details

An area of rain, heavy in places, will affect parts of the north-east Midlands and east and northeast England during Monday, before clearing overnight. There is significant uncertainty in the amount of rainfall and location of the largest totals, but 20-40 mm of rain could fall quite widely with a chance that a few places could see 60-80 mm. Strong northeasterly winds will accompany the rain.

What should I do?

Check if your property could be at risk of flooding.



Very low likelihood of medium impacts
